Representations against service tax

2829. SHRIMAT IJAYA BACHCHAN: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have received representation from various sections of industry/society regarding imposition of service tax, if so, the details in this regard;

(b) whether it is also a fact that service tax is largely considered as tax on the inefficiency etc., of service rendered;

(c) whether Government propose to review the levy of service tax; and

(d) if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI S.S. PALANIMANICKAM): (a) No Madam. There have been some †Original notice of the question was received in Hindi.

representations against levy in case of some services, but there has been no representation against Service Tax perse.

(b) and (c) No, Madam.

(d) Services contribute to more than 50% of GDP. Hence if no tax is levied on them this sector would not contribute anything to the exchequer, thereby creating unnecessary pressure on the other sectors of economy. Internationally also Service are subjected to tax. In view of the reasons as stated above and recommendations made by various expert Committees, Service Tax has been levied and there is no proposal to review the same.
